REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY PROGRAMME

Theme: “Lost in Translation”

Venue: College General Hall, Zainab Memorial B.Ed Centre, Cherkala

Date: 23 February 2026

Time: 1:45 PM

Organized by: Eunoia Literary Club in association with IQAC

The Eunoia Literary Club, in association with IQAC, organized a programme in connection with International Mother Language Day under the theme “Lost in Translation.” The programme aimed to create awareness about the importance of mother languages and to promote respect for linguistic and cultural diversity among students.

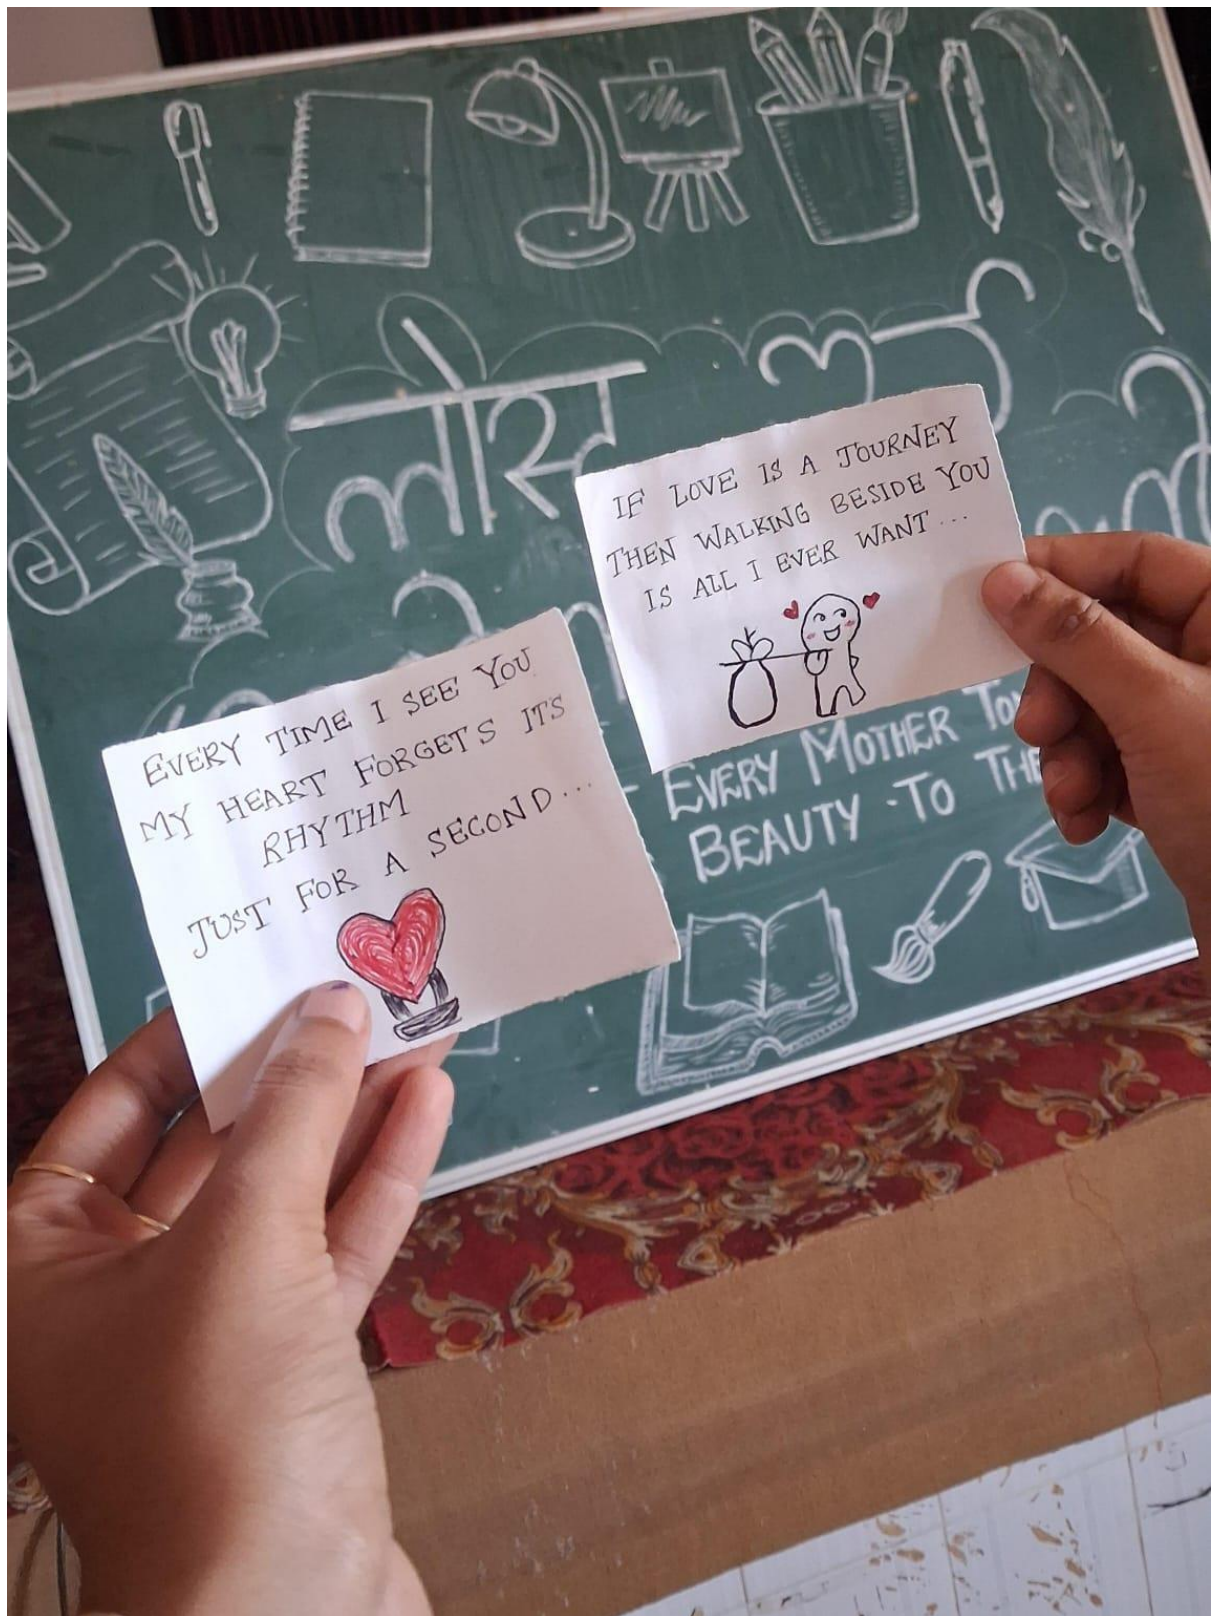

The event was conducted in the College General Hall with active participation from teacher trainees and faculty members. The programme began with an introductory session highlighting the significance of International Mother Language Day and the role of language in shaping identity, culture, and communication. The theme focused on understanding how meanings and emotions may change during translation from one language to another.

The programme created an engaging learning environment that encouraged creativity, collaboration, and critical thinking. It also enhanced students' communication skills and strengthened their awareness of linguistic diversity.

In conclusion, the programme was informative and meaningful, successfully emphasizing the importance of mother languages in education and society. The event provided a valuable platform for students to reflect on language, culture, and communication, making the celebration both educational and memorable.
